

SAFETY COURSES

ACCIDENT PREVENTION (SF10A)

OBJECTIVE:

The accident prevention techniques course will provide attendees with fundamental skills needed to prevent occupational injuries and illness.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Safety committee members, safety engineers. Supervisors from all operational departments and operators.

COURSE CONTENT:

- Introduction to Accident Prevention Techniques
- Safety and Health Programs
- Motivating Safety and Health
- Industrial Hazards
- Hazards Identification and Analysis
- Safe Operating Procedures (SOPs)
- Accident/Incident Investigation
- Safety and Health Audits
- Safety and Health Training
- Controls and Personal Protective Equipment
- Safety Signs and Tags
- Energy Control Procedures: Lockout/Tagout
- Case Studies

Duration: 5 Days

Date:	Venue:	Cost:
Mar 8-12	Abu Dhabi	USD 2,200
July 5-9	Bahrain	USD 2,200
Nov 15-19	Qatar	USD 2,200

BASIC SAFETY AND LOSS PREVENTION (SF04A)

OBJECTIVE:

To introduce the total safety process. Inspection of accidents. Prevention, systems and procedures. Incidents causation, means of securing a safer working environment and human reliability factors.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This course is recommended for anyone who is involved in the total safety process, prevention and procedures.

COURSE CONTENT:

- Introduction
- Accident Causation
- Accident Prevention
- Safe Systems of Work
- Loss Prevention Methods
- Accident Investigation
- Accident Reporting
- Fire Cause and Prevention
- Methods of Extinguishments, Precautions
- Outline of Inspection Procedures and Systems

Duration: 5 Days

Date:	Venue:	Cost:
Feb 15-19	Cairo	USD 2,200
May 17-21	Kuwait	USD 2,200
Sept 27-Oct 1	Qatar	USD 2,200