

SAFETY COURSES

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH MANAGEMENT OF THE OILS, GAS, PETROCHEMICAL and OTHER INDUSTRIAL ACTIVITIES (SF24A)

OBJECTIVE:

This seminar explains in detail, occupational health management of the oils, gas, petrochemical and other industrial activities.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This program is recommended for anyone who is involved in this field.

COURSE CONTENT:

- Health Management System
- Occupational Health
- Health Risk Assessment
- Medical Emergency Response Planning
- Health Care Provides and Facilities
- Guidelines for Medical Evacuations by Ground Air and Water
- Communication
- Return from International Assignment
- Health Audits for Managers
- Food and Water Hygiene Standards
- Ergonomics

Duration: 5 Days

Date:	Venue:	Cost:
Mar 15-19	Kuwait	USD 2,200
Aug 16-20	Qatar	USD 2,200
Dec 13-17	Abu Dhabi	USD 2,200

OPERATION and RESPONSIBILITY FOR SAFETY (SF18A)

OBJECTIVE:

This course is has been developed to provide knowledge to the attendees, who will learn how to identify and control hazards for safe operation and responsibility in the workplace.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Process & maintenance operators, technicians, junior engineers and safety committee members.

COURSE CONTENT:

- Benefits of Effective Safety and Health Programs
- Accident Causes-Theoretical Teamwork
- Process Safety and Hazard Analysis
- Accident Triangles and Ergonomics
- Occupation Safety and Health-OSH
- Reactive Chemicals
- Hazard Communication and Chemical Safety
- Hazard Precautions

Duration: 5 Days

Date:	Venue:	Cost:
Jan 11-15	Cairo	USD 2,200
May 10-14	Kuwait	USD 2,200
Oct 18-22	Bahrain	USD 2,200