

SAFETY COURSES

SAFE PLANT MAINTENANCE FOR ELECTRICAL PERSONNEL IN OIL ONSHORE/OFFSHORE INSTALLATIONS (SF22A)

OBJECTIVE:

This course provides participants with principle knowledge of safe plant maintenance in oil onshore/offshore installations.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This course is recommended for anyone who is involved in electrical plant maintenance in oil onshore/offshore installations.

COURSE CONTENT:

- Introduction to the worker & definitions
- Hazop and Hazard Identification in Petroleum Industry
- Electrical Safety
- Lockout/Tag-out Procedure
- Auditing for the Onshore & Offshore Installation
- Offshore Survival System
- Emergency Response Planning
- Fire Theory Prevention & Suppression Days
- Work Precautions & Instructions
- Inspecting for Electrical Hazards.

Duration: 5 Days

Date:	Venue:	Cost:
Feb 8-12	Oman	USD 2,200
May 17-21	Cairo	USD 2,200
Oct 31-Nov 4	Jordan	USD 2,200

SAFETY BEST PRACTICES (SF36A)

OBJECTIVE:

This course will demonstrate the safety rules and how to work safety focusing on the precautions to be considered from employees who are working with batteries.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Employees who are working in safety department, engineers, technicians and chemist.

COURSE CONTENT:

- Basic Definitions
- Introduction to Safety Management Systems
- Types of Industrial Hazards
- Safety Regulations
- Hazardous Material Handling
- Electrical Hazards
- Reducing Electrical Hazards
- Effect of Electrical Current on Human Body
- Electrical Shocks

Working Safety with Batteries:

- The Charger
- Batteries (Installation, Operation and Maintenance)
- Artificial Respiration

Duration: 5 Days

Date:	Venue:	Cost:
Jan 11-15	Kuwait	USD 2,200
Apr 5-9	Bahrain	USD 2,200
Aug 2-6	Qatar	USD 2,200